51st Meeting

THE AUSTRALIAN MEMBER COMMITTEE OF THE COUNCIL FOR SECURITY CO-OPERATION IN THE ASIA PACIFIC (AusCSCAP)

THEME

Hegemony, Power, Prestige:

What do major powers want, and how do they seek to achieve it.

Wednesday 12 June 2019

University House, ANU

AusCSCAP

The Australian Member Committee of the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific (AusCSCAP), one of 21 national committees of the Track Two CSCAP Council, will be holding a seminar at the Common Room, University House, ANU campus, on Wednesday 12 June 2019.

The seminar will commence at 09.15 (registration at 09.00) with a light lunch served at 13.00. Discussion will continue after lunch for those able to stay. The meeting will conclude at 15.00.

The format of AusCSCAP meetings and seminars follows an open, informal (no set speeches) and collegiate discussion, under Chatham House rule. All views and comments are encouraged.

We have invited Professor Khong Yuen Foong from the Lee Kuan Yew School in Singapore, and Professor Zha Daojiong from Peking University – thus allowing us to continue to bring to strategic debate in Australia important perspectives from the region.

Professor Khong is a highly respected scholar who has recently written a paper on Power as prestige in world politics, which has led us to the theme of our meeting. Professor Khong will speak to his paper, and comments from invited participants and scholars will be welcome.

Professor Zha Daojiong, from the Institute for South-South Cooperation and Development at Peking University, is a well-known scholar and commentator in the international media, who has engaged closely with policy-makers in China. We were delighted that he accepted our invitation at this time.

Please note that there is limited parking at the front, and paid parking at the rear (entry via Garran road) of University House, with all-day paid parking at the corner of Liversidge and Garran Roads. Unfortunately free parking permits for events are no longer issued by University House.
